Powerful Living for Health and Wealth

Passion – 4 places you forgot to look

God hides things by putting them all around us. ~Unknown

1. Passions are things you would do, even if you didn't get paid.

Thought starters – If money weren't an issue, what would you spend your time doing? What cause or movement would you take part in?

Hear how he leveraged his passion into a six-figure income.

2. Passions aren't necessarily things you chase; sometimes it's what is chasing you?

Thought starter – What ideas or activities keep showing up in your life with little to no extra effort on your part?

By his own admission, he couldn't "outrun" what was chasing him.

3. Passions can be birthed out of your greatest struggles.

Thoughts starters – What were some of the hardest professional times for you to get through? What were some of the hardest personal times?

His obesity and chronic health problems were keeping him from living the life he wanted. Not only did he move past what was at one time crippling him, he harnessed the experience and built a business around it.

4. Passions can grow from traumatic experiences.

Thought starter - Have you walked through something that left a significant mark?

The abandonment of her husband and the starting over she had no choice but to do, moved her emotionally and spiritually like nothing else could. In her show, she talks about how she was able to “embrace the pain” and begin a ministry for single moms.
